

LIVE AT SPECTACLE

Spectacle Live, a premier music promotion company based in Lexington, MA, is rolling out a terrific line-up of Irish and Celtic music this spring, bringing to New England these dynamic Irish and Scottish bands and legendary individual performers.

The Red Hot Chilli Pipers bring their rollicking Scottish band of bagpipers to Plymouth Memorial Hall on February 28, the Nashua Center for the Arts on March 1 and to the Colonial Theatre in Laconia on March 2. The Irish Tenors, stars from PBS TV, take the stage at Colonial theatre on March 7, featuring Anthony Kearns, Ronan Tynan and Declan Kelly.

Irish Fiddle sensation Máiréad Nesbitt, former star of Celtic Woman, performs at the JPT Film and Event Center in Newport, RI on March 9.

At Plymouth Memorial Hall in Plymouth, The High Kings from Dublin, perform on March 12. The popular quartet includes Finbarr Clancy, Darren Holden, Brian Dunphy and Paul O'Brien. Then on March 16, the Irish Comedy Show recreates the party atmosphere of a Dublin pub and combines it with boisterous humor and Irish wit.

Later in spring, the Shamrock Tenors, an exciting new band from Belfast, come to the Lowell Memorial Auditorium on May 1.

And finally, Donegal crooner Daniel O'Donnell is in concert at the Nashua center for the Arts on June 6, and at the Historic Park Theatre in Cranston, RI on June 8.

Spectacle operates in eleven concert venues throughout Massachusetts, New Hampshire and Rhode Island, bringing hundreds of concerts and cultural events to cities and towns across the region.
